

MAKING BELIEVE

DRUM SET

The image displays a drum set score for the song "Making Believe". The notation is written on seven staves, each representing a different drum. The first staff begins with a common time signature (C) and a repeat sign. The notation uses 'x' marks above the notes to indicate cymbal hits. The first two staves feature a complex, multi-measure rhythmic pattern. The third staff continues with a similar pattern. The fourth staff introduces a change in the bass drum pattern, with some notes marked with an accent (^). The fifth and sixth staves return to a pattern similar to the first two staves. The seventh staff concludes the piece with a final rhythmic pattern. The notation is clear and detailed, providing a comprehensive guide for a drummer to play the piece.

The image displays a musical score consisting of seven staves. The first staff includes two first/second endings, labeled '1' and '2', which are indicated by a bracket above the staff. The notation is primarily composed of eighth-note patterns with stems and flags, often grouped by beams. The second staff through the sixth staff continue with similar rhythmic patterns. The seventh staff features a more complex rhythmic structure, including a half note with a fermata and a quarter rest. The final staff shows a single eighth note followed by a quarter rest and a half rest.
